

Media FAQ'S

Who can apply for press tickets?

To attend the Festival as an accredited member of the press, accreditation must be granted in advance of the Festival. To apply for accreditation, please download this form.

When completing the form, please share as much information as you can about how you intend to cover the Festival in your media outlet. All applications are subject to ticket availability and Press Office approval. Someone from the Press Office will be in touch to confirm whether or not your application has been successful.

Are press photographers welcome?

Professional photographers are welcome, but numbers are strictly limited to ensure the audience experience is not compromised. Photographers are not allowed to take photographs on the Festival site without appropriate accreditation. To request accreditation, please click the 'Apply for Press Accreditation' button above and give details of what you would like to photograph.

Accredited photography on site is subject to Festival guidelines.

Can I arrange interviews with Festival participants?

Yes. All requests to interview Festival speakers, performers or staff must be arranged via the Press Office. Please contact us with details of your interview requests.

Can I film or record events?

All on-site filming or recording must be agreed with the Press Office in advance of the Festival. Videographers are not allowed to film on the Festival site without appropriate accreditation. To request accreditation, please click the 'Apply for Press Accreditation' button above and give details of what you would like to film.

Accredited filming on site is subject to Festival guidelines.
